Dear Mrs. Young:

Please forgive my tardy reply to your July letter. I read it very carefully. Unfortunately, I can not provide any additional news on the family you mentioned in Dresden, Tennessee. I am sorry that I can not help you in that regard.

The address you requested for The Gospel Advocate is P. O. Box 150, Nashville, Tennessee, 37203. I hope that this provides you the necessary information you need. I would urge you to subscribe to the Advocate. You will find some interesting and inspirational reading in it.

I'm always happy to hear from you. Thank you for writing. I send you my best wishes for your good health.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

I saw my brother Smith at my sisters home in Perry Co. in 1951
I am just as well to day as the day I last saw my brother in 1951.
and a lot better satifide but 18 years older, I just want him to know that I am getting a long just fine.
The last address I have is, Smith Gibbons Dresdon, Tenn. Route 2.

Slim lives next door on the right in grage apt. his landlord killed him self May 31, 1967, Slim and his wife (we were just speaking aquance) took a vacation Aug. and Sept. 1967- they went south and visited all my people, They were home weeks before I knew where they went. I---- went over to see Slim, I ask him about the trip I was hoping he would tell me about my people. made him mad and he would not say one word.
He sure has caused me a lot of aggravation 1968 was just awful.

I trust my brother and wish him well, I dont want to write to him, some body wants to hurt him, she says he is sick, I have no reason not to - believe her because he is an elderly man, I sure would like to hear -- from through you, If you know a preacher in Dresdon, Tenn. Maybe he-- could visit Smith.

I wish you would send me the address of the religious paper The Advacate.

This is an awful lot to ask of you, as busy as you are.

Sincerely yours,

Minnie M. Young
